In paragraph 7 (a) of the News Print Control Order (original paragraph 5 renumbered as paragraph 7 by Notification No.P.1870 dated 5-11-1941) a return in Form V was required to be made every month of sales of News Print effected by any person other than the Proprietor of News Paper Press.

The present Notification of the Government of India omits this provision (7 (a) as well as Form V). This is evidently because under an earlier open general permit all persons other than Proprietors of News Paper Presses were permitted to sell News Print to any perso

A draft of a similar Notification is put up for consideration.

A second Notification is publication of Open General Permit No.II. Under this permit, Proprietor of News Paper Presses are given permission to sell certain amount of a certain kind of News Print to any person or to use for any purpose. As the general permits of the Government of India apply to Mysore also, under our Order, this Notification of the Govern of India will be republished in Mysore for general information. A draft for this purpose is also put up for consideration.

Key Q

Reference is invited to the Notification on page 70 of the Gazette of India of 5.1.42. By one of them the definition of newsprint is amended so that newsprint should not weigh less than 40 grammes per Square metre.

By the other amendment Open General Permit no I is Cancelled, presumably because Open General Permit no II has been issued.

The former amendment will be incorporated in the draft already approved and the latter will be republished.
